

THE CONSORTIUM

MBA Application Preparation Seminar (MAPS)

Saturday, October 31, 2009
8:30 AM - 2:00 PM

Marriott Metro
775 12th Street NW
Washington, DC 20005

To gain a competitive edge, we invite prospective graduate business students to attend our free workshop to learn from MBA admissions representatives and alumni from top business schools how to navigate the MBA admissions process and discover valuable information to help craft a competitive MBA application. Through interactive panel discussions, attendees will:

- Understand the value of an MBA
- Learn about the benefits of applying to business school through The Consortium for Graduate Study in Management
- Have the opportunity to learn about Consortium member schools and meet admissions officers
- Hear from successful alumni/students about their MBA experiences

Attend The Consortium MAPS to discuss the benefits of pursuing an MBA degree from an educational, professional and personal perspective. Register and bring a friend!

To register for this free event click the link below:

Register Here
or call 888-658-6814

Member Schools

Carnegie Mellon University • Cornell University • Dartmouth College • Emory University
Indiana University - Bloomington • University of Michigan - Ann Arbor • New York University • University of North Carolina
University of Rochester • University of Southern California • The University of Texas - Austin • University of Virginia
Washington University in St. Louis • University of Wisconsin - Madison • Yale University